The schedule is as follows:

September 19 – K. Daniel presents Chrysalis Epoch

Combining R&B, soulful house, and West African dance, K. Daniel takes audiences on a journey that describes his upbringing, struggles, and triumphs, and explores how intersectionality has shaped his world view and the way the world views him.

October 17 – Daniel Goins & Friends

Enjoy an evening of soulful jazz with Daniel Goins & Friends, presenting a performance experience inclusive of instrumental sounds, vocal harmonies, and therapeutic rhythms.

November 21 – Backstage Revue

In celebration of the 10th anniversary of the Lincoln Theatre’s grand reopening, Backstage at the Lincoln will showcase a selection of the talented, local artists that have graced the Lincoln’s stage through this series and other artist incubation programs offered at the Lincoln. Audiences will be seated in the auditorium only for this performance.

Tickets are $10, and seating is limited. All programs begin at 7pm at the Lincoln Theatre (769 E. Long St.). Tickets can be purchased in-person at the CAPA Ticket Center (39 E.
